CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

This year marks twelve years of NeoFusion Creative Foundation – twelve years of resilience, learning, and unwavering commitment to our children. The journey has had its share of challenges, but the faith of our students and the support of our well-wishers have always given us the strength to move forward.

We began the year with renewed energy, leading to Jazbaa 2025, where we courageously addressed themes of emotional manipulation and trapped relationships. This opened new avenues for impact and led to our collaboration with Reet Foundation to launch “Kahani Se Kanoon Tak,” a project connecting stories with legal awareness.

Traditionally, we prepare diyas every Diwali. This year, however, many of our children were in crucial academic classes, so we chose to prioritise their studies. Around the same time, I learned that one of our alumni had started her own diya business called Brillia. We decided to support her journey by connecting her with CSR partners and individuals. This effort gradually evolved into NeoBrillia, which we envision as a cottage industry where young people can develop skills, receive training, and eventually build their own small enterprises.

I am deeply grateful that several organisations placed their trust in our mission as CSR partners. With Feeding India’s support, we now provide two nutritious meals daily to every child at our centres– a milestone for their health and learning. Each year strengthens our belief that meaningful change is possible when compassion meets commitment.

Today, NeoFusion serves:

- 200 students in Gurugram,
- 250 children in Bijnor learning computer skills, and
- Around 50 students in Jaipur who are learning and growing with us.

As we look ahead, we dream bigger aiming to enrol 500 children into the academic system and establish a permanent space in Gurugram. We hope to continue serving those in need and seek your continued trust and support as we move forward with hope and purpose.

FOUNDER CHAIRMAN

At NeoFusion Gurugram, each day begins at 8 AM with breakfast for the students, followed by structured academic learning sessions. After lunch, students complete their homework and participate in performing and visual arts classes in the evening, helping them grow academically as well as creatively.

The evening shift is dedicated to school dropouts and first-time learners. These children receive remedial education and support to prepare them for admission into formal schools.

Students also benefit from monthly STEAM sessions in partnership with Smile Foundation progressed to higher education, and some are now part of NeoFusion's core team. To further strengthen skills and employability, students receive computer education through Nai Disha Foundation, while Matri Sanskar conducts value-based learning sessions.

JAIPUR – CREATIVITY & ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Jaipur holds a special place in NeoFusion's journey, as it is one of the cities where our initiative first began. For the last 13 years, the centre has been running smoothly, continuously supporting children through creative learning and academic guidance.

Currently, NeoFusion Jaipur conducts evening classes that combine dance and theatre training with academic tuition support, helping around 50 students build confidence, discipline, creativity, and stronger academic foundations.

As we step into 2026, we are planning to expand and strengthen the Jaipur centre by introducing more skill-based courses that can create better learning and livelihood opportunities for young people, helping them become more confident, independent, and future-ready.

BIJNOR, UTTAR PRADESH: DIGITAL EDUCATION FOR RURAL STUDENTS

In rural Bijnor, NeoFusion has established two computer labs in government primary schools, bringing digital education to nearly 250 students. Through hands-on learning and the support of trained teachers, children are gaining essential computer literacy and digital skills, helping them become better prepared for a technology-driven future.

It is truly overwhelming and heartwarming to see students from small villages working on computers with such confidence. Moments when they proudly share their learning in English fill us with immense pride and hope for their future. Encouraged by this positive impact, NeoFusion is now planning to start computer learning programmes in one more school from 2026, expanding access to digital education for even more rural children.

Jazbaa 2025 was a powerful celebration of art and social awareness. A major highlight of the event was NeoFusion's original play "KATHPUTLI – Story of Strings, Power & Pain."

The play portrayed themes of patriarchy, power, and the silent struggles of women, using a compelling blend of theatre and contemporary dance. The performance deeply moved the audience, with many relating personally to the story and its message.

EVENTS

Chunatiyon Se Sahas Tak

Under “Har Chunautiyon Se Sahas Tak”, we proudly honoured three inspiring mothers of our students, Chabi Ray, Uma Raikwar, and Manju Shit for their unwavering faith, resilience, and dedication toward their families and communities. Their journeys reflected the silent strength and courage that truly define the spirit of womanhood.

We were also honoured to have Dr. Sumati Dixit, a gynaecologist, conduct an insightful session on menstruation, hygiene, and menopause, creating a safe space for awareness and open discussion.

The programme concluded with the distribution of sanitary napkins by the consultancy group, reinforcing the importance of dignity, health, and menstrual hygiene for every woman. It was a proud and emotional moment for all of us at NeoFusion to celebrate women who inspire change every day.

NEW INITIATIVES

We are happy to share that our children are now moving beyond education towards self-reliance.

One of our students, Lata Roy, a BFA student, started her own brand, Brillia.

To nurture her talent, NeoFusion partnered with her and launched a new product line called NeoBrillia.

Currently, we create fragrance candles, which you can see at our stall today. In the coming months, we plan to introduce Ayurvedic soaps and other eco-friendly products. We envision this initiative as a cottage industry model, through which hundreds of children can receive skill training and employment opportunities.

TESTIMONIALS

Receiving the Best Intern Award from NeoFusion Creative Foundation is an honour I will always cherish. What began as a short internship became a deeply meaningful learning experience that reshaped my understanding of education and social impact.

Working closely with adolescents and educators helped me understand the realities faced by children from underserved communities. Teaching and engaging through creative activities showed me how thoughtfully designed programs can truly transform lives.

NeoFusion is not just an organization , it is a space where creativity meets compassion, and every child is treated with dignity and belief in their potential. Its unique use of performing and visual arts to reconnect adolescents with education left a lasting impression on me.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. Anubhooti and the entire NeoFusion team for their guidance and trust. This experience will remain a defining chapter in my journey.

CASE STUDY- AJIT SINGH

Ajit Singh was one of the first students to join NeoFusion's Gurgaon chapter when classes were conducted in a park. At that time, he was in Class 3 and was an extremely naughty yet talented child who found it difficult to sit calmly during sessions. With continuous patience, guidance, love, and discipline, he gradually began understanding the importance of education and self-growth.

Today, Ajit is pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Kathak and is also mentoring younger children at NeoFusion through his training and guidance from his Kathak Guru. Alongside dance, he has developed a passion for theatre and recently impressed audiences with his powerful performance as "Sanjay" in the play Kathputali. His acting was so convincing that audience members told him they "hated" his character because he performed it so brilliantly.

Ajit's journey beautifully reflects the transformation that care, mentorship, and creative opportunities can bring into a child's life.
